Thousands of Fish Are Killed by Strawboard Refuse.

A dispatch was received in this city last night from Shelbyville, stating that it is reported that the strawboard works in Carthage has emptied its refuse into Blue river with the result that thousands of fish have been killed. The dispatch recalls that last year, when a similar practice was inlined with dead and decaying fish for miles. | $15,000, and the directors are Thomas C. to prosecute the owners of the plant is Robert D. George, of Montpeller, and Wilstill on hand and steps will be taken at once to punish them," added the dispatch. replied: "Yes, that is true. A man whose name, I think, is White, was in my office a few minutes ago to report that very state of affairs. I told him that I was cognizant of the fund raised to fight the authors of this evil and recommended that private prosecutions be instituted. I said to him that private prosecutions always resulted better than public prosecutions. The man that visited Dr. Hurty said that he saw one fish, a carp, weighing six and one-naif pounds that had been killed by the poisonous refuse dumped into Blue river from the strawboard plant mentioned. Condition of Indiana G. A. R.

R. M. Smock, assistant adjutant and quartermaster of the Indiana G. A. R., forwarded his report to the national G. A. R. headquarters yesterday. Colonel Smock's report showed that in the past six months 226 veterans have died, which is the largest death rate ever shown in the Indiana de partment. The total loss of membership was 352, the difference being due to with drawals, suspensions and transfers. The report shows 46 posts in this State with from the great death loss the condition of the Indiana department is shown to be ex-

FEAR THEY WILL BE TRICKED.

Men Seeking Place on Democratic Ticket Attack Fanning.

The decision of Joseph T. Fanning, chairman of the Democratic city committee, not to entertain petitions for places on the balot until after the call for the primaries has been issued, has led several of those who want to get a good place on the ticket to charge Mr. Fanning with duplicity. They maintain that there is a scheme whereby a slate is to be fixed which shall include Taggart for mayor, Geckler for clerk, Daly for judge, and six councilmen at large. nearly name their own slate by placing the and Leslie asked the State Board, it is said, day with City Engineer Jeup and the memnames of their favorites first on the ticket. no way of telling who put in his petition first.
